

The History Of Tonino's Pizza

In 1977, Tonino's Pizza was only a distant dream for the 19 year-old Italian immigrant, Antonio Illiano.

Born in the small town of Baia, just minutes from downtown Naples, Antonio grew up with foods fresh from the farm and learned southern Italian cooking methods passed down from generations of old family recipes. Tonino (Little Tony) first experienced the art of traditional Italian pizza-making from his mother in their outdoor wood-fired oven.

Today, after launching 19 successful pizza shops throughout the eastern United States, Tony has continued his Italian cooking traditions at Tonino's Pizza for over two decades along with his 4 sons.

Tonino's Pizza promises the highest quality ingredients in all of our pizzas. We use Grande®, America's finest mozzarella cheese and make our sauces with imported Italian san marzano tomatoes and fresh Italian basilica. Our dough is made the old-fashioned way, with no preservatives or additives, using an old family recipe with natural yeast.

The Tonino's Difference

Tonino's Pizza promises the finest ingredients including Grande® mozzarella cheeses, sauces made from imported san marzano tomatoes, fresh Italian basil & dough made the traditional way, with no preservatives or additives, using an old family recipe with natural yeast.

But our dedication to using good, clean food in our pizza shops goes even further than the best cheese & homemade sauce & dough. You might be surprised to know:

► We use non-GMO, D.O.P. tomatoes certified by the Italian government

► We use 100% hormone-free, fresh, never frozen tenderloin chicken (not processed chicken)

► We use 100% corn and/or canola frying oil, with no partially hydrogenated oils

► We slice our deli meats daily

► We never use MSG or added preservatives

► When possible, we purchase our produce from local farmers' markets

COME TRY OUR FOOD... YOU CAN taste OUR DIFFERENCE.
